(6:27b)

But he did it at night because he was afraid of the other members of his father's household and the people of the town.

Lessons we learn from Gideon

God loves to use _____ people to do amazing things for Him.

But to those called by God to salvation, both Jews and Gentiles, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. This foolish plan of God is wiser than the wisest of human plans, and God's weakness is stronger than the greatest of human strength.

Obstacles in our life are opportunities for God to display his _____.

The very things that you may feel are keeping God from working in your life may be the conduit for God to show himself in your life.

_____ is the starting point for God's heroes.

Allowing God to work through us begins with a choice to believe God about two important issues:

What God says about himself.
What God says about you.

Obedience is choosing to align our life around the truth of these two details.

It's all _____ not us!
